MASS INTENTIONS 12th APRIL EASTER SUNDAY

There are no public masses in the Dublin Diocese, including St Teresa's until further notice. We look forward in hope to the time when they can be resumed.

In relation to MASS INTENTIONS – The priests of the parish will continue to offer mass privately for all booked intentions. Public celebrations will be re-arranged for a future date. If you have any questions, please feel free to ring us about it.

Holy Week Daily Reflections

The bible texts are on another page

Monday – Creation

Read Isaiah 42: 1-9: As the Prophet Isaiah noted in verse 5, God is the creator of the world. This includes God as creator of all nations, all families and all persons. As people created in God's image, we are a gift to our families and communities.

Children: I WONDER how our family can share God's Gifts with each other?

For Families: Yesterday was Palm Sunday. We marched with Jesus into Jerusalem. We witnessed the crowds cheering. In the story of Palm Sunday, we heard stories or rumours of religious leaders plotting to kill Jesus. How did Jesus, the Servant of God, do the very things noted in Verses 6-7? How does Jesus continue to do them today?

For Reflection: Complete this question: I am a gift to my community because.....

Tuesday – Exodus

Read Isaiah 49: 1-7: The Jews of Jesus' day hoped that when God acted, God would heal their nation. At that time, the nation of Israel was occupied and run by the Roman government. Religious and Roman leaders maintained a tense relationship. Jesus' actions in the temple (Turning over the money changers tables) revealed Gods care for all people, including those exploited by their leadership. Jesus' ministry was a light that invited hope for all.

Children: I WONDER how can we serve God and serve our neighbours in the word?

For Families: Like we saw yesterday's reading from Isaiah, God declares the servant would be "a light to the nations". How did Jesus accomplish this in his ministry? What do you think it means or looks like for us to be a light to others?

For Reflection: Complete this question: One of the gifts I offer to my Church or Community is.....
