Marist Community News

Fr. Paul Walsh has now joined our community. He has returned from England where he worked as Director of a Marist pastoral project in London. Paul will be on sabbatical for the year but will be helping out his weekend by celebrating the 10am and 12.30pm Masses. Welcome Paul.

Parish Secretary

We are delighted to announce the appointment of Mrs. Teresa McGinley as Parish Secretary. Teresa most recently worked in an administrative role in the Mater Hospital and comes highly recommended. She will begin her work on the 4th of August. Because of the number of Mondays lost to Bank Holidays, Teresa will work on Tuesdays and Fridays and not Mondays as was previously indicated. Welcome Teresa

Recently Deceased

Christy Balfe late of Ivy Terrace, Cork St. RIP

Pilgrim Paths Ireland

Prompted by the recent focus on the climbing of Croagh Patrick, I found the following information about other Irish pilgrimages online.

The Pilgrim Paths of Ireland are a collection of ancient religious routes around the country which have documented claims to having been used by pilgrims since ancient times. Walking these ancient ways not only offers the opportunity for spiritual renewal but also provides us with a link to our past.
