FIRST HOLY COMMUNION – today the 12th of MAY

Over the past year children living in or attending schools in the parish area have been preparing for their First Holy Communion. Today they will receive for the first time the Body of Christ and will enter into a deeper communion with our Lord and our faith. The celebration and solemnity of the day is due to all those who prepared for this day and who celebrated with us: the teachers & choir from Scoil Treasa Naofa, especially Karen Slammon and Mairead McCabe, our parish pastoral assistant Sam Byrne, and many others. Congratulations to all the children and to their families.

DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

This Sunday, Good Shepherd Sunday, is the Day of Prayer for Vocations. We all see the need for people of faith to respond to the call of Our Lord to serve his people and the church. The Lord gives different gifts and calls to different ministries. Please keep this intention in mind today and during the week.

CHANGES IN PREVIOUSLY ANNOUNCED COLLECTIONS

Due to an announcement from the Dublin Diocese we have had to make some changes to previously announced special collections.

The special collection for the training of priests (Vocations) that would normally take place this Sunday (11th & 12th May) has been cancelled, as the diocese has sufficient funding for the training of priests at the moment.

The diocese, however, will be holding a special collection the following weekend (18th & 19th May) MINISTRY SUNDAY for the “Passing on of the Faith and Support for Lay Ministry”, in short: the training of Lay people for Ministry. This will replace the share collection that weekend.

There are leaflets and posters at the back of the church with further information about this initiative to raise funds for the training and support of Lay Ministry in the Diocese.

As a consequence of this change we have had to postpone again the visit of Sr Nuala, a Franciscan Missionary, for a mission appeal. She will now come to our parish on the 13th and 14th July.

‘MARY IN OUR CHURCH’ reflection evening

To conclude the month of Mary, Fr. Alois invites everyone to a reflection on the place of Mary in our faith and our life. Which Marian title is especially dear to me? Under which title is Mary shown in our church? This reflection is based on art work and Marian images as given in our church: This reflection will take place on Thursday the 30th May at 7.30pm in the church.

FEAST OF OUR LADY OF FATIMA:

Monday the 13th May: The shrine dedicated to her in this parish is in the Maryland Grotto and is an invitation to us to say a prayer.
