CONGRATULATIONS TO CANTAIRI OGA ATHA CLIATH

Do you remember the Choral Music night in the church on Sunday 20th October, with Cantairi Oga Atha Cliath and that the following week they were travelling to Portugal to take part in a Choral Festival. Well, they did really well at the festival, as you see below in the message from Joyce.

We made it back from the 3rd International Choral Festival of Aveiro, Portugal on Monday, and I'm delighted to let you know that we won the festival Grand Prix as well as first prize in the Female Voice competition and second prize in the Sacred Music competition. Below is a link to the RTE article which was published yesterday:

Best wishes and thanks again for helping on our journey to bringing back the silverware!
