CHILDREN'S PROGRAMME

FOR WMOF

Children can also have a faith experience at World Meeting of Families 2018!

All children are welcome with their parents/carer! The children's programme will include songs, arts and crafts, dance, games and lots of fun! Fun packed faith activities, shows and workshops will entertain the children while helping them to reflect on the importance of family. A special children's programme will be run concurrent to the adults/youth programme for children age 4 to 12. Parents will be able to leave their little ones at the children's programme with a professional vetted team or stay with them while the children enjoy an exciting and interactive programme planned just for them!

TEEN'S PROGRAMME

FOR WMOF

An entire programme dedicated to young people at World Meeting of Families 2018!

Each day, running concurrently with the adult's programme, young people aged 13 and upwards will be able to experience an exciting and dedicated programme, where they will share their faith with many other young people from around the world and fuel their faith.

The youth programme will include music, prayer experiences, workshops, interesting speakers, exciting activities as well as times for sharing, reflecting and celebrating, while engaging in a once in a lifetime experience of faith and celebration.

Further details on the programme and timetables will be announced closer to the date of the events. For ticket information on this or other events, please go to the dedicated website www.wmof2018.ie
