HARVEST SUNDAY: Penny Dinners

This weekend 15th & 16th October, we celebrate Harvest Sunday. It is a time to give thanks to the Lord that we have food on our tables. Like last year, in lieu of asking for donations of fruit and vegetables for those less fortunate than ourselves we have placed a box in the centre of the Church for donations to The Penny Dinners in Meath Street – also known as The Little Flower Penny Dinners. This is a very well known charity in the Liberties area of Dublin. It was established in 1912 by the local parish and community in response to the high levels of poverty in the area and to provide food for those in need. The charity was named in honour of St. Teresa of Lisieux, widely known as the Little Flower; and started with donations from local parishioners of one penny per week. Hence the name The Little Flower Penny Dinners.

CHURCH CHOIRS

The Adult choir has returned at the 11am Mass and is looking for and welcoming new members. Please join in with the singing. We are beginning a new Junior Choir Club overseen by Maria & Sam. Registration for the new choir is now open. Like all events involving children, all safeguarding procedures will be in place.

CHURCH CLEANING / UPKEEP OF THE CHURCH

Update: Really, really grateful to our three new volunteers to help clean the church each week. It would be great to have one or two more if you are free.

A MESSAGE FROM TENTERS 100

Last Thursday myself and most of the Tenters100 committee attended the DCC Dublin City Neighbourhoods Awards in Croke Park. Tenters100 won first place in the 'Best New Group' category. We are delighted to win this award and the prize monies will go towards more Tenters100 events.

Congratulations also to the Tenters Residents Association who also won a prize on the night. Between both groups, we are certainly putting the Tenters area on the map!

Other good news to report is that RTE have agreed to feature the Fairbrother's Fields/Tenters short documentary on their Nationwide program next Friday 14th October at 7pm. That means everyone, no matter where they are, overseas, in hospital, in nursing homes etc can see this lovely tribute to the story of the housing scheme. It's great timing as the following morning, myself and another resident, Kieran Doyle O'Brien will lead a guided Walk for Open House Dublin titled "100 years of the Fairbrother's Fields". Thank you for advertising this walk for us in previous newsletters, it's greatly appreciated.

If you need any other information please give me a shout. Maria O'Reilly

PARISH WEBCAM

There is live streaming of church services in this church. It can be accessed on our website: www.donoreavenueparish.ie or through <https://www.mcnmedia.tv>

SAFEGUARDING REFRESHER NIGHTS

Thank you to everyone who attended the parish safeguarding nights during the week. We hope you found them informative, reassuring and inspiring. Safeguarding of children and all vulnerable people is part and parcel of the fibre of parish life. If anyone ever has any concerns please raise them with either of our parishes safeguarding representatives, Lorraine O Donoghue and Helen Bennett, any of the parish team, the Dublin Diocese or if you prefer directly to Tusla or the Gardai. Contact details are one the safeguarding notice board at the porch.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION PROGRAMME

Registration for the preparation programmes for the Sacraments of First Holy Communion and Confirmation for 22/23 year is now closed. There are nineteen pupils enrolled for the sacrament of First Holy Communion and nine for Confirmation.

Tuesday 01 November at 6.30pm: Parish Liturgy Committee meeting. Monday 17th October at 8pm: Parish Pastoral Council meeting. Sunday November 6th at 11am: the Annual Mass for the Deceased.

ENTRANCE PROCESSION FOR MASS

From weekend of October 22nd we will revert to a pro-covid practice of the Ministers of the Word and Eucharist processing from the sacristy at the beginning of each weekend mass. This is a further sign of a return to more normal liturgical routines that were suspended due to the pandemic.

FIRST COMMUNION CALLS AND HOUSE VISITS

If you are aware of a neighbour or friend who would like a pastoral visit for a chat and/or to receive communion or the sacrament of the sick, please let any member of the parish team know. The parish team and many Eucharistic Ministers are willing and available for such visits.
