ENTRANCE PROCESSION FOR MASS

From this weekend October 22nd we will revert to a pro-covid practice of the Ministers of the Word and Eucharist processing from the sacristy at the beginning of each weekend mass.

FIRST COMMUNION CALLS AND HOUSE VISITS

If you are aware of a neighbour or friend who would like a pastoral visit for a chat and/or to receive communion or the sacrament of the sick, please let any member of the parish team know. The parish team and many Eucharistic Ministers are willing and available for such visits.

PARISH FINANCE COMMITTEE.

The parish Finance Committee met last Monday and considered the parish finances for 2021 and the up to date accounts for 2022. A report on the 2021 finances is being prepared for distribution.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

The PPC had its monthly meeting last Monday and welcomed three new members: Niamh McInerney, Eileen Fitzpatrick and Paul McNamee. It is with a deep sense of gratitude that I acknowledge that at the previous meeting Sharon Hicks retired after many years of commitment to the work of the council and the parish, not least as chair for the past three years. Among other items the PPC considered its role in the parish and the guiding place of the parish mission statement and pastoral plan. We will have a single item agenda for the next meeting in November namely the Building Hope document from the Archbishop of Dublin and the potential impact on St Teresa's parish.

PARISH LITURGY COMMITTEE

The parish liturgy committee met on the 4th October and planned the various liturgies for October & November, including the annual mass for the deceased. We also had an initial look at the Christmas liturgies.

PARISH COVID COMMITTEE

The parish covid committee will meet in the near future to review all covid measures in the church, given that there are no measures required for parishes now by either state or church
