

Reflection from the Superior General

“How might this Holy Week affect us as Marists?”

The Superior General shares his response to this question in a video message.

You can find his Reflection in English, French and Spanish on our website www.maristsm.org/reflections-from-the-superior-general on video and as a text.

You are also invited to read the Superior General’s Report presented at the Council of the Society, 2022. You can find it on the same website.

This material is already available in various languages. Other language versions will appear on the website when they are completed.

Best wishes for a blessed Holy Week and a very Happy Easter!
