SUMMER OFFERING

Over the period of the pandemic, the Diocesan finances dropped significantly and still remain low. As a means to try to address this shortfall, last year the Diocese introduced a 'Summer Offering' envelope and they are repeating it again this year. We have placed SUMMER OFFERING envelopes on the tables in the middle of the church. Please consider making a donation. Envelopes can be placed in the safe or given to any of the parish team. On behalf of the diocese - Thank you!

NEW MASS TIMES AND MINISTERS OF THE WORD AND EUCHARIST

With the change to the mass schedule approaching on the weekend of September 2nd, we need to check in with all ministers of the Word and Eucharist regarding availability for the new mass times. With that in mind, we ask all ministers of the Word and Eucharist to collect an envelope from the sacristy containing a consultation on the above.

POEM: MIRACLES

*Why, who makes much of a miracle?
 As to me I know of nothing else but miracles,
 Whether I walk the streets of Manhattan,
 Or dart my sight over the roofs of houses toward the sky,
 Or wade with naked feet along the beach just in the edge of the water,
 Or stand under trees in the woods,
 Or talk by day with any one I love, or sleep in the bed at night with any one I love,
 Or sit at table at dinner with the rest,
 Or look at strangers opposite me riding in the car,
 Or watch honey-bees busy around the hive of a summer forenoon,
 Or animals feeding in the fields,
 Or birds, or the wonderfulness of insects in the air,
 Or the wonderfulness of the sundown, or of stars shining so quiet and bright,
 Or the exquisite delicate thin curve of the new moon in spring;
 These with the rest, one and all, are to me miracles,
 The whole referring, yet each distinct and in its place.*

*To me every hour of the light and dark is a miracle,
 Every cubic inch of space is a miracle,
 Every square yard of the surface of the earth is spread with the same,
 Every foot of the interior swarms with the same.*

*To me the sea is a continual miracle,
 The fishes that swim—the rocks—the motion of the waves—the ships with people in them,
 What stranger miracles are there?*

RECENTLY DECEASED

Please continue to pray for the happy repose of the soul of Colette Hartnett, whose funeral took place on Monday 17th July and also for the consolation, peace and support of her family.

PARISH WEBCAM

There is live streaming of church services in this church. It can be accessed on our website: www.donoreavenueparish.ie or through <https://www.mcnmedia.tv>

LOURDES1. ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP DONATIONS

St Teresa's Parish has a long tradition of assisting with the Dublin Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes through the Associate Members Donations. In my time here in St Teresa's, Jean McDonald promoted this venture and collected the donations at the weekend Masses. This was interrupted, like everything else, by the Covid Pandemic. The Dublin Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes is back up and running again and we thought this year we would have a once off special collection for donations to the Pilgrimage.

This collection will take place on the weekend of July 29th & 30th with a donation box, sheets and cards.

These donations help to keep the overall charge to a subsidised fare of €595. There are posters for further information on the church notice boards.

For information on travelling as an assisted sick pilgrim, consult with Geraldine Conlon or any member of the parish team.

PERSONAL BELONGINGS.

Last Wednesday a parishioners handbag was stolen from the church after the 10.00am mass. The incident is captured on our CCTV system and the Gardai will be viewing the pictures. This incident acts as a reminder to us all to be mindful of our personal belongings while in the church and not leaving them unattended. As you know it is the inconvenience of having to cancel and replace: phone, cards, keys, etc.
