HARVEST SUNDAY

Our celebration of the fruits of the earth takes place this weekend Saturday & Sunday 14th & 15th October, with a collection for Meath Street Penny Dinners. As a parish we have dedicated Harvest Sunday for the past two years to the work of Little Flower Penny Dinners, Meath Street.

A little note from Ruth Harkness, General Manager ...now thank fully we are open again as usual. The old buzz is back in the building. As we always say, we are about so much more than just the food. Food is important, we all need it – but we provide more than that. We give people respect and dignity and a bit of craic. We like to think people leave full of good food and full of joy.

People need our help more than ever. As we approach the end of the year, we ask of you are able to donate to please think of us. We rely on donations to survive and to do the work we do so every donation large or small make a huge difference to us. We are truly grateful for the support we receive."

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Children are always welcome in the church. If younger children need some entertainment or occupation during mass, there is a space near the rear of the church with tables, seats, books, colouring pages and crayons, available for parents and for children. In the course of time, a banner will be installed and a display board for pictures. The confession room will also be left open during weekend masses and is available for use by parents if children need a quiet and more solitary setting.

UPGRADES AND RENEWALS.

New CCTV camera's have been installed outside the church building. We await a quote for the upgrade of lights for the sanctuary. All the overgrowth on the boundaries of the church property will be removed. The bell for the church is to be serviced, along with the upper gutters cleaned.

2. Invitation: During the coming week keep an ear and an eye open for any news of the Synod, that you may come across in newspaper, TV, phone, or conversation. Then come along and share what you hear or see next Thursday after mass in the parish house, over a cup of tea. Check out the Vatican News website, the Dublin Diocese Synod 2023 website and many more for up to date information.
