A SUGGESTION:

If you are approached for your vote in the Local or European Elections ask some questions of the candidate: e.g. Can you assist this community in getting the Donore Youth & Community Centre repaired and reopened sooner rather later? There are many other questions that could be asked: Housing; Security in our community; Rights of Minority groups in society; safety for migrants and refugees and many more. Ask the questions.

SACRAMENTAL PROGRAMME 2024/25

It is time for Parents and guardians who have children for the sacraments of First Holy Communion and Confirmation to make application to the parish. Over the next month or so Sam Byrne (Pastoral Assistant) will be available to meet individually with parents and guardians and discuss together the significance of the sacrament, the preparation and the programme. Scoil Treasa Naofa, St Catherine's National School and Educate Together Canal Way and Griffith Barracks have been contacted to make this information available to the relevant parents / guardians.

PARISH SHOP

The parish shop has been restocked. It will be in a new location on the right just outside the first set of double doors at the back of the church. The space has been reconfigured for the parish shop thanks to the skill of Tommy Moylan. It will reopen on the weekend of the 8th / 9th June with a whole new supply of mass cards and religious objects. As mentioned previously, we are looking for volunteers willing to assist Sam Byrne and Jean Fitzpatrick in the running of the shop. The idea being that volunteers would assist for the 20minutes or so after a mass. Please contact Sam or Jean if you are interested.

DIOCESAN CERTIFICATE IN CATECHESIS

As we plan for the future of the Church in Ireland we would like to train the teachers of faith of the future. These people are called catechists. What will it involve? A commitment of time on seven Saturdays, one each month from September to March, from 10am – 4.30pm in St. Paul's on Arran Quay, Dublin 1. For those who wish to learn more about passing on the faith to others, and particularly in accompanying families throughout Baptism, First Communion and Confirmation throughout the next generation, please speak to Sam or any member of the parish team for details. Costs will be covered by the parish.

Have a lovely June Bank Holiday weekend.
