PARISH TRIP TO KNOCK

The parish trip to Knock will take place next Saturday 15th June – departing at 8am The cost is: €40 to include bus and meal. By this time it is pretty certain that the bus is full (52) but if in doubt contact Sam.

TENTERS IN BLOOM

"that the thoroughfare hitherto known as Cow Parlour off Cork Street be henceforth designated Boulevard Bloom" quote from Ulysses by James Joyce.

On Thursday 13th June, the Tenters Celebrated Heritage Group would like to cordially invite you to join us in Cow Parlour, off Cork Street to celebrate Bloomsday with music, refreshments and good company. 11 – 1pm Free event – come early.

BOOK OF INTERESTLIFT UP YOUR HEARTS by Mary Threadgold RSC.

This is a practical book for the benefit of those committed to visiting older people on a regular Basis, either in nursing home or their own homes, whether they are family, friends or volunteers. The main part of the book is focussed on companionship and befriending in general while the final section is relevant to those with an interest in spirituality and religious practice. It is available from Messenger Publications, Leeson Street, Dublin, Veritas Bookstores & Knock Shrine Bookshop. Also available on line from www.engagingdementia.ie. Price 6.95.

SACRAMENTAL PROGRAMME 2024/25

It is time for Parents and guardians who have children for the sacraments of First Holy Communion and Confirmation to make application to the parish. Over the next month or so Sam Byrne (Pastoral Assistant) will be available to meet individually with parents and guardians and discuss together the significance of the sacrament, the preparation and the programme. Scoil Treasa Naofa, St Catherine's National School and Educate Together Canal Way and Griffith Barracks have been contacted to make this information available to the relevant parents / guardians.

PARISH SHOP

The parish shop opens this weekend. Please pay a visit and say hello. It has been restocked, with all kinds of religious objects and cards. It is located to the right just outside the first set of double doors at the back of the church. The space has been reconfigured for the parish shop thanks to the skill of Tommy Moylan.

As mentioned previously, we are looking for volunteers willing to assist Sam Byrne and Jean Fitzpatrick in the running of the shop. The idea being that volunteers would assist for the 20minutes or so after a mass. Please contact Sam or Jean if you are interested.

PARISH FINANCES.

Included with newsletter is a Parish Income and Expenditure Account. This gives a broad overview of the expenses incurred in the parish and also the sources of income. The full accounts for audit have been submitted to the Dublin Archdiocese.

The parish team are very grateful to everyone for their continued generosity towards the parish and the diocesan collections. It is of immense help. Thanks also to the members of the finance committee who oversee the financial accounts of the parish: Michael Douglas (Chair), Dee Kinahan (Sec), Pat Byrne and Norma Bodie along with Frs John, David & John. Similarly thanks to Brian Byrne, Tony O'Reilly and Eddie Payne who week in / week out oversee the counting of all the collections along with Fr. David.

NEW ARRANGEMENTS IN THE PARISH FOR COLLECTIONS FOR PARISH DONATIONS & DIOCESAN DONATIONS

Donation points for contributions to both the Parish of St Teresa's and the Dublin Archdiocese are now in a new location. As you come into the church they are situation to your right at the notice boards. As you leave the church they are to your left of the door.

There is a Tap & Go Card machine, and a donation box for all donations to St Teresa's Parish by cash (notes or coins) and by the weekly or donation envelope.

There is also a separate Tap & Go Card machine, and donation box for all donations to the Dublin Diocese 1st Collection and Share Collection by cash (notes or coins) and by envelope
