CENTENARY CELEBRATIONS - ST TERESA'S CHURCH.

The foundation stone for St Teresa's Parish church was laid on the 13th July 1924. This marked the beginning of the construction stage which would be completed in 2026 with the opening of the church. Beginning next Saturday 13th July 2024, parishioners and friends of St Teresa's Church, Donore Avenue will mark the centenary of the laying of the foundation stone of the Church. Over the next two years leading up to the anniversary of the opening of the church we will have various events to mark the centenary. Mass at 6pm next Saturday, will be celebrated by Bishop Paul Dempsey, newly appointed Auxiliary Bishop of Dublin, followed by the unveiling of a stone to mark the centenary, the planting of a rowan tree and refreshments afterwards. Everyone is very welcome.
