SPIRITUAL DIRECTION WORKSHOP

Last week the students of Casa di Maria received three days of training in Spiritual Direction. Frequently, young priests are asked to be spiritual directors but they receive no training in this ministry during their academic studies. For this reason, the formators believed it would be helpful for them to have a workshop on the subject, considered from different angles, theoretical and practical. The speakers were Sr Eleanor Campion O.C.S.O. and Frs Paddy O'Hare, Larry Duffy, Albert Kabala and Roque Rebito. On Saturday, they had a time of reflection with Fr John Larsen, followed by a liturgy in which 13 of our seminarians renewed their vows before the Superior General.

“EL RECUERDO DE DIOS”

Fr Jaime Pérez Martínez from the District of Mexico has recently published a book “El Recuerdo de Dios” (In English: The Remembrance of God).

The work takes its inspiration from the manuscripts of Yohannan of Dalyatha, a mystical monk of the Syriac-Eastern Church. Yohannan lived around 690-780 in what is now Northern Iraq, and helps us to focus on the recurring verb of “Remembering”. God, in fact, is “the great Archivist”, the gentle Rememberer who never forgets his Covenant with us in our history. Those interested in the book can contact Jaime by email.
