VOCATIONS SUNDAY : Good Shepherd Sunday –

"A vocation is a precious gift that God sows in our heart, a call to leave ourselves behind and embark on a journey of love and service." – Pope Francis, World Day of Prayer for Vocations 2025

As we journey through the Jubilee Year of Hope, we are invited to reflect on how God continues to call each of us to bring light and hope to the world. As Pope Francis RIP tells us: "There is no vocation without mission."

We give thanks that, in the Archdiocese of Dublin, there are three seminarians, as well as a greater number discerning the priesthood. Their "yes" to God's call is a sign of great hope for our Church and our communities.

Let us pray for them, and for all those considering a vocation to the priesthood, religious life, or lay ministry that they may hear and respond to God's call. May this Good Shepherd Sunday be a moment of encouragement and support for vocations to flourish among us. For the full message of Pope Francis please see this link: Message for the 62nd World Day of Prayer for Vocations 2025.

The Celebrant will be Fr Brian McKay O Carm. who spoke at each night of the Triduum to St Therese last Sept/Oct. This will be a special mass of celebration to mark this centenary and will be followed by light refreshments afterwards. You will remember Fr. Brian McKay O Carm. as the speaker at our Triduum to St Therese last Sept / Oct. All welcome.

JENNIE'S LAW.

On the table at the back of the church are some petition pages in aid of Jennie's Law. The family of a young lady from Finglas have begun a petition calling on the Irish government to introduce a domestic violence register which would create "A right to ask and right to tell scheme" to protect women and men from the crime of Domestic violence. The resister would be known as Jennie's Law in memory of Jennie Poole who was murdered by her ex-partner in 2021. We invite you to add your name to the petition if you so wish.
